The screenshot shows the registration interface for the event "VIQRC FULL VOLUME at Showa Women's University 2023" on November 26, 2023. The page features the "イベント" (Event) logo and a link to "イベント一覧へ" (View all events). The main content area includes the event details and a registration form. The form has a dropdown menu for the number of applications, currently set to "1", and a text input field for the number of teams, currently set to "team". The fee is displayed as "¥xx,xxx / team" and "チーム / チーム". A red box highlights the "お申込み" (Apply) button. A yellow callout box explains that on smartphones, the application units are displayed as "/person" instead of "team", but users should still enter the number of teams. A red circle highlights a link to "お申込みはこちら" (Apply here), with a note to click it to check available payment methods. Below the form, there are links for "お支払い方法について" (About payment methods), "特定商取引法に基づく表記" (Disclosure based on the Act on Specified Commercial Transactions), "利用規約" (Terms of Use), and "推奨環境" (Recommended environment). The footer identifies the organization as "The General Incorporated Association for Promoting Youth STEM Education".

The General Incorporated Association for Promoting Youth STEM Education

User Terms and Conditions (translated by ChatGPT)

Article 1 (Purpose)

These terms and conditions stipulate the use of reservations and sales for permanent or temporary events and other services (referred to as "Events") provided by customers of Event Pay (referred to as "the Company"), operated by Metaaps Payment Co., Ltd.

Article 2 (Responsibility for Events)

1. The Company conducts the application acceptance and sales of Events based on the commission from event organizers or third parties entrusted by event organizers (referred to as "Organizers").
2. The Company bears no responsibility for Event delays or cancellations, Event content, or any other matters related to the Events themselves. For inquiries about these matters, please contact the Organizers.
3. Events may have restrictions on the number of tickets sold or the target audience as designated by the Organizers. In cases of a large number of applicants, Events may be sold through a lottery system. The Company does not guarantee that all applicants will be able to purchase tickets.

Article 3 (Preparation of Usage Environment)

1. Customers must prepare the necessary communication equipment, software, and internet connectivity agreements at their own expense and responsibility to use the service. The Company will not cover any communication fees, connection fees, or related costs associated with customer use of the service.
2. Customers should acknowledge in advance that depending on their device or usage environment, they may not be able to use the service.
3. Customers should configure their email environment to always receive electronic mails from the Company regarding the service.

Article 4 (Terms of Use)

1. Customers using this service shall confirm and agree to the contents of these terms and, following the prescribed procedures of the Company, use the service.
2. If the customer is a minor, they shall obtain the prior consent of their legal representative, such as a guardian, regarding the conclusion of these terms and the use of this service.

Article 5 (Usage Agreement)

1. Customers shall apply based on the "Separate Provisions for Event Sales" and, upon the Company's acceptance, a usage agreement based on these terms shall be established between the customer and the Company.
2. The Company may not accept the application of the customer if any of the following apply:
 - The customer has received penalties such as cancellations in the past in connection with contracts with organizers or the Company.
 - The application contains false, inaccurate, or omitted information.
 - The customer is a minor and has not obtained the consent of their legal representative, such as a guardian.
 - The customer's designated payment method has been subject to suspension or other measures by credit card companies, financial institutions, etc.
 - In other cases where the Company deems the conclusion of the usage agreement inappropriate due to reasonable grounds.
3. When a minor uses the service, their legal representative shall bear joint responsibility with the minor for the use of this service.

Article 6 (Notifications)

1. Notifications of changes to these terms and other communications from the Company to customers shall be made via email, general postings on the Event Pay website, or other methods deemed appropriate by the Company.
2. If the notification in the preceding paragraph is made via email, it shall be considered complete when sent to the email address provided in advance to the Company.

Article 7 (Suspension or Cancellation of the Service)

1. In the event that the customer falls under any of the following items, the Company may immediately suspend or cancel the customer's use of the service and terminate the usage agreement without prior notice:

- Engaging in acts that violate Article 15 and correspond to prohibited actions.
- Delays or becomes unable to fulfill payment obligations such as fees.
- Fails to complete payment procedures, such as transferring funds, despite the conclusion of a purchase agreement.
- Disrupts the operation of the service, regardless of the means.
- The use of the payment method specified by the customer is suspended by credit card companies, collection agencies, financial institutions, etc.
- There is suspected fraud at the time of the usage agreement.
- Uses the service for profit.
- Violates these terms.
- In other cases where the Company reasonably deems it inappropriate.

2. If the customer's actions under any of the items in the preceding paragraph result in damages to the Company or third parties, the customer shall be responsible for compensating for such damages.

Article 8 (Formation, Modification, and Cancellation of Event Reservations)

1. The establishment of a reservation for participation rights in this service shall be deemed to occur when the customer completes the application registration on the application acceptance site, and the "Application Number" is displayed on the customer's terminal device (personal computer, tablet, smartphone, mobile phone, etc.).

2. Once a reservation has been established in accordance with the preceding paragraph, regardless of the reason, changes or cancellations of reservations cannot be made through this service. Changes or cancellations of reservations must be made by direct inquiry to the event organizer.

Article 9 (Payment of Fees)

1. Customers are required to pay the fee for participation rights (hereinafter referred to as the "Fee") using one of the methods specified by the Company.

2. If the "Convenience Store Payment" option is selected, the Fee must be paid within the specified deadline. If payment is not made within the specified deadline, the reservation for the participation rights will be automatically canceled, and the customer cannot object to this.

3. If the "Credit Card Payment" option is selected, customers must register credit card information according to the prescribed procedure using a valid credit card in their name and make payment by automatic settlement on the date specified by the Company.

4. If the "Pay-easy Payment" option is selected, customers must make payment of the Fee through Pay-easy (Pagey) settlement at an internet banking site, mobile banking site, or ATM, based on the issued "Payment Number."

5. The Company may impose restrictions on payment methods. The Company may also add, change, or modify additional fees and payment methods by notifying customers in advance using the methods deemed appropriate by the Company.

If you need any further clarification or translation of these articles, please feel free to ask.

Article 10 (Refusal of Reservation Sales, etc.)

1. The Company may refuse event reservations and sales and may suspend or cancel your use in the following cases:

- If you make false statements regarding matters specified by the Company or fail to make necessary statements.
- If you engage in conduct during the reservation or purchase of participation rights that causes inconvenience to other customers or third parties.
- If you fail to complete the specified procedures within the designated period.
- If you do not follow the specified purchase methods.
- If you engage in conduct that violates these Terms and Conditions.

2. In the event that the Company incurs damages as a result of the preceding paragraph, the Company may claim compensation from the customer responsible.

Article 11 (Exchange, Modification, Cooling-off Period)

Once an event reservation is completed, regardless of the reason, you cannot make changes, cancellations, or exchanges. The cooling-off period does not apply to event reservations made through this service.

Article 12 (Reissue)

The Company will not reissue tickets issued during reservation sales under any circumstances (e.g., loss, theft, damage).

Article 13 (Refunds)

1. All responsibilities related to changes in the content, cancellation, or postponement of Events (including notification responsibilities) lie with the Organizers, and the Company assumes no responsibility for these matters.

2. Notifications to members regarding changes in the content or cancellation of Events will be carried out by the Organizers under their responsibility. The Company may, however, perform some refund-related tasks upon commission from the Organizers.

3. In cases where the Company conducts refund-related tasks, the following conditions apply:

- Refunds are applicable only to members (the purchaser).
- Refunds for the Event fee will be carried out following the specified procedures communicated to the customer's email address within the refund period determined by the Organizers. If the refund period expires or if the process is different, refunds will not be issued.
- The Company will generally refund various fees incurred during the Event purchase (excluding transaction fees). However, some Event-related fees may not be refundable depending on the specific Event.
- In no case will expenses other than the Event fee and the various fees mentioned in the preceding paragraph (such as transportation, accommodation, communication, shipping, etc.) be reimbursed.

Article 14 (Termination and Additional Sales of Reservation Sales)

Even during the Event sales period, sales of the Event will end once the planned number of tickets is reached. However, if there are additional tickets provided by the Organizers, sales may resume.

Article 15 (Prohibited Activities)

1. Customers shall not engage in the following activities when using the service:

- Actions that damage or infringe upon the rights, privacy, reputation, or credibility of the Company or third parties, or actions that may pose such risks.

- Actions that cause or may cause disadvantages or damages to the Company or third parties.
- Actions that defame or slander the Company or third parties.
- Illegal activities, aiding illegal activities, or actions that may pose such risks.
- Profit-oriented activities or activities aimed at preparing for profit.
- Unauthorized use of passwords.
- Actions that obstruct the smooth operation of the service, or other actions that may hinder the service.
- Sending or spreading harmful programs like computer viruses intentionally.
- Attempting to use the service through methods that are different from normal, such as using software for automated entries.
- Attempting unauthorized access to other computer systems, databases, networks, etc., through the service.
- Reselling Events at a price higher than the purchase price, or attempting to resell.
- Listing Events on auctions or online auctions.
- Any other actions deemed inappropriate by the Company.

2. If it is discovered that a customer has engaged in the actions specified in the preceding paragraph, the Company or the Organizers may invalidate purchased Events, deny entry to the Event, and request the removal of individuals already in attendance, at their discretion. In such cases, the Event fee will not be refunded.

Article 16 (Handling of Personal Information)

The Company will handle customer's personal information in accordance with the separately defined "Privacy Policy" and "Consent Provisions for Handling Personal Information." Customers are required to agree to the "Privacy Policy" and "Consent Provisions for Handling Personal Information" as an integral part of these terms.

Article 19 (Amendment of these Terms and Conditions)

1. The Company may establish separate provisions concerning this service in addition to these terms and conditions. These separate provisions shall constitute a part of these terms and conditions after being presented to the customer. If there are any differences in provisions between the separate provisions and these terms and conditions, the separate provisions shall take precedence.

2. The Company may change these terms and conditions (including separate provisions) within a reasonable range and by reasonable methods without obtaining individual consent from the customer.

Article 20 (Governing Law)

The operation of this service, the establishment and interpretation of these terms and conditions shall be governed by Japanese law.

Article 21 (Jurisdiction)

In the event of a dispute between the customer and the Company arising in connection with this service, the parties shall make sincere efforts to resolve it through consultation. However, in the event that consultation fails, the Tokyo District Court or the Tokyo Summary Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction as the court of first instance, by mutual agreement between the parties.

Article 22 (Miscellaneous)

In addition to the provisions of these terms and conditions, for individual events and other matters, the organizer may establish terms and regulations. These terms and regulations shall also apply. The organizer may change or add provisions without prior notice.

Supplementary Provision: These consent provisions were revised on December 1, 2020, at 10:00 AM.

If you need any further clarification or translation of these articles, please feel free to ask.

Handling of Personal Information (translated by ChatGPT)

The Company will handle the personal information entrusted by customers based on the following provisions. Additionally, customers who use this service are deemed to have agreed to the following provisions.

Article 1 (Collection of Personal Information)

1. Customers agree to the collection and recording (including recording telephone conversations conducted during telephone inquiries, hereinafter collectively referred to as "collection") by the Company of customer information, such as name, address, telephone number, email address, payment details, etc., for the purposes stated in Article 2 of this consent agreement.
2. When customers provide information about companions when applying for an event, the names and other information of those companions are also considered part of personal information. Customers are responsible for obtaining the consent of the companions themselves for the Company to handle this information in accordance with the following provisions.
3. Customers may decide whether to provide personal information voluntarily. However, customers who refuse to provide the necessary personal information to the Company or provide incorrect personal information acknowledge in advance that they may not be able to receive this service or various services based on this service.

Article 2 (Purpose of Using Personal Information)

The Company will use the personal information obtained from customers for the following purposes. In cases where personal information is used for purposes other than those listed below, the Company will notify customers of the new purpose and obtain their consent.

1. Reservation sales and provision of participation rights for events and other activities handled by the Company.
2. Sending electronic mail, direct mail, and other means of sales promotion activities, including providing information related to this service and advertising information for products and services from companies deemed appropriate by the Company.
3. User support related to this service.
4. Provision to third parties as described in Article 3, Paragraph 2.
5. Conducting various surveys, campaigns, and giveaways for the development and provision of the Company's services, as well as other purposes.
6. Creating and publishing statistical data aggregated in a form that does not identify or specify individuals, for the purpose of reference in the Company's business activities and the development of new services, as well as marketing analysis based on such data.
7. Using and recording access information (internet, mobile site, telephone, etc.) for system operation and management, as well as handling inquiries.
8. Business activities related to the preceding items.

Article 3 (Provision of Personal Information to Third Parties)

1. Customers agree that the Company may provide personal information to third parties (hereinafter referred to as "business consignees") to the extent necessary for the Company to use personal information for the purposes defined in Article 2. In such cases, the Company shall impose an obligation on the business consignees not to use personal information for purposes other than those specified.
2. Customers agree that the Company may provide personal information to third parties as specified below:

- Recipient: Organizers of events for which customers have acquired participation rights through this service.
- Purpose of Provision:
 - For providing information about performances, products, services, etc., offered by the event organizers.
 - For identity verification when entering the event venue.
 - For providing information related to event cancellations, postponements, changes in content, etc., and for conducting refund procedures (if applicable).
- Items of Personal Information Provided: Name, address, phone number, email address, accompanying person information, payment method, information related to customers' hobbies and preferences, and information entered during the reservation application (excluding credit card numbers, expiration dates, security codes, and cardholder names when paying by credit card).
- Method of Provision: Browsing through the internet and providing CSV files.
- Existence of a Contract Regarding the Handling of Personal Information: Yes.
- Method of Acquisition: Direct acquisition through input on the reservation application webpage at the time of reservation.

Customers agree to the above provision of personal information to third parties.

Article 4 (Exceptions to the Provision of Personal Information to Third Parties)

In addition to the provisions of the preceding article, the Company may provide all or part of personal information to third parties without obtaining the customer's consent in the following cases:

1. When disclosing in a state where individuals cannot be identified.
2. When requested by laws, regulations, etc.

Article 5 (Measures for Safeguarding Personal Information)

1. The Company shall take necessary and appropriate security measures based on the current technological standards to protect personal information from leakage, loss, disappearance, unauthorized access, alteration, destruction, and other risks.
2. The responsible person for the protection and management of personal information at the Company and the contact information are as follows:

Personal Information Protection Manager: Head of the Business Department (Phone: 03-6372-6817)

3. The Company shall not acquire or collect personal information by methods that customers cannot easily recognize during the customer registration process, such as information acquisition through cookies or web beacons.

Please let me know if you need a translation or have further questions about these articles.

Article 6 (Procedures for Requests for Disclosure, Correction, etc., of Disclosable Personal Information)

1. The Company shall respond to requests for notification of the purpose of use, disclosure, correction, addition, deletion, suspension of use, erasure, and suspension of provision to third parties regarding personal information that falls under disclosable personal information after confirming the identity of the individual concerned. However, the Company may not be able to fulfill requests that significantly interfere with the proper conduct of its business, etc.

2. The contact point for requests mentioned in the preceding paragraph is as follows:

- Email: event@metaps-payment.com

Article 7 (Handling of Personal Information Including Credit Card Information)

Regarding personal information, including credit card information (card number, card expiration date, security code, cardholder name), the purposes of use, the data recipient, the name of the provider, and the retention period are as follows:

1. Purposes of Use: To settle the purchase price of participation rights with a credit card.
2. Data Provider: Metaps Payment, Inc.
3. Name of Data Recipient: Various credit card companies and payment processors.
4. Retention Period: In accordance with the periods required by various laws and regulations.

Supplementary Provisions: These consent terms were revised on December 18, 2017, at 9:00 AM.
